

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

RESTON, Virginia, April 8, 2005 – The International Technology Education Association recently honored Richard Seymour of Ball State University with the Wilkinson Meritorious Service award. This award is presented to an individual within the technology education profession who has established an exceptional record of service to ITEA. To qualify, individuals must have distinguished themselves by serving ITEA through committee work, serving on various ITEA projects, and similar service activities. Nominees must be members of ITEA. The award was presented during the Awards Luncheon at the ITEA 67th annual conference in Kansas City, Missouri.

For more information regarding the Special Recognition Award, contact the International Technology Education Association, 1914 Association Drive, Suite 201, Reston, VA 20191-1539; (703) 860-2100; fax (703) 860-0353; itea@iris.org; www.itea.org.